GARFIELD AT Y. M. C. A.

Addresses Banqueters Prior to Election of Officers.

Hon. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, gave an after-dinner speech on "The Making of Character" at the annual dinner of the Y. M. C. A. in the banquet room of the association building last evening at 7 o'clock. The speaker said that character can be built in the public service as well as in any other activity of life, and that men of sterling character are more often found there than is Hearing on December 2 of Matter In-thought. In concluding, he said: "Despite the press reports of the horrors from the under-world the average man and woman are better than ever before. The Young Men's Christian Association is formed for the purpose of bringing Christianity into the daily life, and I hope it will continue to do the good it is now doing."
